Terms of Use

Last updated 3 November 2026

These terms apply to agentichoneypot.com and the Sting beta. Please read them with our Risk disclosure and Privacy notice.

1. Who we are agentichoneypot.com and the Sting beta are run by Agentic Honeypot ("we", "us"), based in Mexico. Contact: hello@agentichoneypot.com.

2. Agreeing to these terms

By using the website or the beta, you agree to these terms. If you do not agree, please do not use them.

3. Who may use the service

You must be at least 18 and able to enter into a contract where you live. The beta is not available in every country (for example, it is currently not available in the United Kingdom). You must not use a VPN or other means to get around these limits.

4. What Sting is today

Sting is software in testing. In the beta, Sting trades a practice account with pretend money. No real money is invested, and we do not hold or manage anyone's money. Practice results do not include every real-world factor and may differ from real trading.

Beta members may also connect their own Alpaca practice (paper) account, so Sting places practice trades in it for them. Only practice accounts can be connected, never a real-money account. This is covered by our Practice account connection terms, which you accept when you connect.

5. Not investment advice

Nothing on the website, in the beta, in our emails or on our social media is investment, financial, legal or tax advice, or a recommendation to buy or sell anything. The trades shown are a test of our system. Please do not copy them. If you make your own investment decisions, you do so at your own risk, and you should consider getting independent advice.

6. Beta access

- Access is free, for confirmed waitlist members who accept the Beta Tester Agreement, and personal to you. Do not share your sign-in links.
- The beta is a test version. It may contain errors, change, pause or end at any time, without notice.
- You may view the beta for your own information only. You may not copy, republish, sell or redistribute its trade data, or use it to run a signals or copy-trading service.

7. Acceptable use

You agree not to misuse or attack the service, access it by automated means (such as scraping) without our written permission, try to get around its security or country limits, or reverse-engineer it.

8. Our intellectual property

The Sting and Agentic Honeypot names, the bee logo, designs, software, text, videos and other content belong to us. You may not use them without our written permission, except to share links to our pages.

9. Emails

If you join the waitlist, we email you about Sting's beta and launch, as described in our Privacy notice. Every email has an unsubscribe link.

10. Other services

The service relies on third parties, such as market data providers, brokers, and email and hosting services. We are not responsible for their services, outages or errors.

11. No guarantees

The website and beta are provided "as is" and "as available". We do not promise that they will be accurate, complete, uninterrupted or error-free, or that any strategy will make money. Past or practice results never guarantee future results.

12. Limits on our liability

To the fullest extent the law allows, we are not liable for any loss arising from your use of, or reliance on, the website, the beta or their content, including any trading or investment loss.

Nothing in these terms limits liability that cannot be limited by law, or your rights under consumer laws that apply to you.

13. Ending access

You may stop using the service at any time. We may suspend or end your access if you break these terms, or if we close the beta.

14. Changes

We may update these terms. We will show the new date at the top and, for important changes, tell beta members by email or in the beta.

15. Law and disputes

These terms are governed by the laws of Mexico. This does not take away any rights you have under the consumer laws of the country where you live.

16. Language

We may provide translations for convenience. If there is any difference, the English version applies.
